Eunice (Herron) Kolbo, Aberdeen died Sunday, Sept. 27, 1998 due to complications of Alzheimer's Disease. Her funeral will be at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, Sept. 30, 1998 at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 215 SE 4th Ave., Aberdeen, with Rev. Gerold Sevig officiating.

Graveside services will be at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, in the Groton Union Cemetery, with Miller-Huebl Funeral Home, Aberdeen, in charge of arrangements.

There will be visitation at the church for one hour prior to the service on Wednesday. There was a Public Prayer Service at the funeral home on Tuesday evening.

Eunice Edna Kolbo was born April 12, 1914 to Ray and Alma (Schlick) Herron, rural Groton. She grew up and attended country school and graduated from Groton High School. She worked for several years at Miller's Department Store in Groton, as a clerk and later became an order buyer for the store.

She married Juel Kolbo, March 6, 1949 at James. They worked for his father at the Kolbo Dairy, later starting their cafe with a line of ice cream and short order. They expanded by adding a complete dining menu and the large Anchor Room. Eunice supervised the many employees who continued to be close friends until the time of her death.

Eunice was a working partner in the development of the Juel Egg Co. with locations in Groton and Bismarck. She was a member of Bethlehem Lutheran church in Aberdeen, and was active in church functions and circle until complications of the disease prevented her participation. She enjoyed ballroom dancing, was an excellent seamstress, enjoyed playing cards, and particularly enjoyed their lake cottage at Enemy Swim. She had been residing at Manor Care, Aberdeen, for the past eighteen months.

She is survived by her husband, Aberdeen; one daughter Rae (Dennis) Nelson; two sons, Lamont (Cindy) Kolbo, Canistota, and Larry (Margo) Kolbo, Bismarck, ND; 10 grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Elmer and LeRoy, and three sisters, Pearl, Cora, and Gladys.

Casketbearers will be Steve Herron, Terry Herron, Jim Hovrud, Gwynne Jones, Ron Adler, and John Schuck.

Honorary casketbearers will be all her friends that knew and loved her.

Special music will be provided by Rosalie Wylie, accompanied by Arliss Alberts. Ushers will be Ben Benson and Vernon Bunsness.

The family prefers memorials be given to Bethlehem Lutheran Building Fund, 215 4th Ave. SE, Aberdeen, SD 57401.
